COMMENDABLE.

At their regular meeting on Tuesday night the A. O. U. W. decided not to sell any privilege which would enable the purchasers to sell intoxicating liquors on the Midway during the Street Fair. This is commendable.

It fair can not be a success without the sale of intoxicants, gambling and naked women dancing, it were good for the city and county to have no fair. We have heard of such things being encouraged and permitted in a neighboring county (not however under the auspices of the A. O. U. W., and Red Men.)

We place such an high estimate upon the gentlemen of this community connected with the fair as to think that they have too much self respect and love for their fellowmen and everything that makes a community praiseworthy to permit such practices.

We trust that our confidence will not be shattered.

The Oders giving the Fair are going to have an orderly time and every one will be protected by the police officers. No extortions will be permitted, though any privilege lesser goes broken. No sale of intoxicants by the orders, neither will any side issues be permitted.

That a railroad will be constructed from Paris to Mt. Sterling with an outlet through by West Liberty, Salyersville, Prestonsburg to a connection with the Norfolk & Western, we verily believe.

It is said a company will be here to go down in the earth about 2500 feet in search of gas. The parties have great faith and are willing to give time and money.

Democracy in Montgomery and Menifee is solid. No trouble ahead.

The Senatorial District is Democratic through and through, inside and out.

The Mt. Sterling Street Fair and Carnival will be a great success. Everybody will be here.

The business of Mt. Sterling is increasing rapidly and houses are going up in almost every direction.

Montgomery County Democrats haven't a thing to quarrel about now. A full vote from now on can be expected.

It is said an electric railroad will be constructed from Sharpsburg to Mt. Sterling and from Sharpsburg to Oeingville in a short time. Such an enterprise would become a paying investment.

It has been said by some over zealous Republicans that somehow when a Republican administration reigns it is always a success; that the good Lord favors their works.

A black man has as much right to carry a pistol as has a white man. The practice indicates that the carrier is either a coward, a bad man or has a very low conception of what manhood is.

It is true money is slow to exchange hands, but our people who have faith that the rains will come in due time and that we will have plenty and to spare will loosen their purse strings that the stuff may circulate.

Rowan County Candidate.

Last week while attending the Bracken Association of Baptists in session at Morehead, Rowan county we had the pleasure of meeting Miss Cora Wilson, Democratic nominee for Superintendent of County Schools. She is a very pleasant young woman, bright, quite thoroughly imbued with the interests of the public schools. She wants to see Rowan county schools the best and her knowledge of the work, her fitness for the place, her determination, energy and perseverance, all coupled with the fact that a Kentuckian born, reared and cultured she will be thoroughly practical, bringing about the very best results without any kind of a jar.

We were delighted to learn that the people favored electing to this position the person best qualified for the place; one who would care for the interest of the entire county regardless of what is termed political favors. Montgomery county schools are being conducted in this way and the people are more than ever the best in the best schools.

Miss Wilson is a daughter of Dr. J. Wilson, of Morehead, and was born in Montgomery county.

A Delightful entertainment was given on Saturday afternoon by Mrs. John C. Thompson in honor of her little daughter, Pattie, aged three years, to many of the young children in town. Among the guests were some who can only say: "Dad, Dad" who have four teeth more or less, and "get 'em" by rolling.

Democratic Convention.

Whereas, the Committee in its call for a Democratic Legislative convention to meet at Chambers' Station on the 15th day of August, 1901, failed to designate the hour for meeting. Now by the authority vested in me as the Chairman of said Committee, I proclaim that the said convention will be called to order at the hour of 10 o'clock, a.m., sun time, Thursday, Aug. 15th, 1901. Precinct meetings at 2 o'clock p.m., Aug. 15th.

Returning, this train will leave Lexington at 9:30 p.m., pass Winchester at 10:10 p.m., and arrive at Mt. Careless Shooting in Town.

On Saturday night about midnight dogs were creating a disturbance in the northwest part of town, and some neighbor tried to quiet them. The bullet struck the residence of Rev. H. D. Clark, passing through the window shutters, both walls of the room, hitting a bureau. The bullet was picked up on the floor in the room where the little daughter was sleeping. The bed room is on the second floor. There is need of care in shooting in town.

Stop Them Before They Do Worse.

On Wednesday evening some boys stretched a wire across the pavement near the residence of Dr. Shirley. E. A. Ford in passing walked against this wire. Being slices having his leg skinned he was thrown with great force. Fortunately he escaped without serious injury. The boys who were engaged in this thoughtless or mischievous pastime are known and should be so doctored that they will not again stretch wire. A word of admonition and a shingle might save them.

During the Street Fair the ladies of the Christian Church will serve dinners and suppers in the Cockett building on West Main St. 52 2t

Killing in Bath.

A dispatch from Owingsville on Monday, August 5, says:

"Near Salt Lick, James Perry, a farmer, was killed by John Flannery, an employee of E. W. Strack, at Yale, Ky. Perry had been to Salt Lick to a circus. Flannery had quarreled with a man named Day. Perry, with two friends, was going home when Flannery and a man named Alfrey came up behind him. Flannery fired on Perry with a revolver, the ball striking Perry. The shooting occurred late on Saturday, August 3, near the C. & O. depot. Perry lived until Monday morning at one o'clock. Later reports say that four or five shots were fired, and that there were other men with Flannery and Levi Alfrey. Constable Dickerson at once went to Yale and arrested Alfrey. The report about Day was not confirmed. Flannery was not arrested at last report. Flannery stated he supposed Perry was Day with whom he had quarreled that day.

Accused of Selling Out.

Political and other circles in Lexington have been agitated with the past week because of sensational statements made by John McLaughlin, the Phoenix Hotel poolroom manager, who said to an Evening Post correspondent:

"The Mayor wants the grand jury to sift this matter to the bottom. He bewails the fact that the courts have not been able to stop gambling. I can tell you what Mr. Duncan has not done to stop gambling they would scratch City Hall from under him before he got back from Buffalo. I can state that the energy, work and money of Lexington gamblers elected him to office and that they were promised protection, and his Police Commissioner, Ernest March, forced the Mayor to move me around, as if I was a white check on a faro layout."

It appears incredible that Mayor Duncan should have acted with so little judgment. We await developments before regarding him as guilty.

To the Public at Large:

I wish to call the attention of all good, loyal respectful people both male and female and of all colors, it matters not whether you are red black brindle or a muckie dun, so you hav sufficient brains to receive a good moral education a long the humanities line of the world. It appears to me after a close observation of the human race the whole world is becoming more corrupt and faster in sin than times roles by. I cant think the grate master intended for things to run in this brutal, never intended for men to make money in such shapes and ways off each other as the air do now. I believe the world would bin told better off if this had never bin satch a thing as money, it has made both hogish and honest in all business of life. man will do anything that can be dun for money, wheyther the good master intended for the dollar to take his place in this world or not the hav done so. The power of money has bin the head of all the world. It is a political and religious gone. It matters not how good and honest a person is if this hav no money thea is not in it, as to good people, there is nun if this hav no stuff, that is the way the world looks at them eny way. I often notice things in a scattering way wher crowds of people comes to gathar on different occasions at various times and sum of them has plenty of money and sum hasnent eny, which is most allways the case, the poorer class has allways wearin them selves to death because this cant hav the finny and associate with the ones that has all of those things; and on the other hand that has money and the other hand was poor, finer looking to associate with the poor class. I hav noticed that every senc I wer old enough to ride my mameys ducks to water.

If you will give the whole thing a clout study you will soon conclude the dollar has caused all those troubles among the human family. I beleive it would be more satisfactory to all classes of people to grade them out a cordling to wealth and stiles, and be gin at the churches first, the pore class of people dont feel reit in church where the rich people are and the rich ones dont want the pore ones set clost to them, still you can have either of them make any objections back on this line yet actions and cost will allways make them think if you afford to give them a little attention, you dont haft to talk out to learn all things if you have common hog brains, knock the all mighty dollar out of your head when you wont be long in finding out all of gods children is the same in every respect; let us not weary our selves to death a bout things and stiles of this life when we all too will make us all even in the role call, dont let the powerful do their cleet out of your home to the sweet by and by.

Now my deere readers dont think for a moment that the riter of these few lines is as pure as the angels to be. I only can say this match satifactorily I am satisfied with all my work in all my deservings aling all works in my power, I allways thought it wer rong for a man to owe me and not pay for mee but its not so bad if I owe him at least it dont look that way to me.

Winona Lake.

It was pleasant to hear Dr. Chapman say from the platform in the presence of a large audience: "Winona stands for the Old Bible and the WHOLE Bible." Indeed this has been the teaching of all who have spoken here; at times the higher critics have been mentioned, altho the older speakers have agreed that these higher critics are mistaken when they touch the Word of God. When listening to such teachers as Dr. Moreland, Dr. McArthur, Dr. Russell, S. D. Gordon, Dr. Chapman and others who have been on the programme, you have been made to feel more than ever before the reality of God and His personal help in our lives, and no uncertain sound is uttered as to the Bible being the revelation of God to man, and our one and only infallible rule of faith and life. The addresses come as a tonic to the Christian. Not only is faith emphasized, but faith that exists in the heart of the individual centered during the last week in Winona Hill," which is a beautiful part of the grounds, now occupied by the poor from Indiana, brought here by the Fresh Air Fund. At one of the meetings some one suggested that it would be well if some of the poor boys in our crowded cities could enjoy the delights of Winona. Immediately a committee was formed, an offering gathered and the movement started. The reporter of the Indianapolis News became greatly interested, and through his paper and the efforts of the visitors here, several hundred dollars were soon secured. The camp was speedily equipped, the children in the city were invited to go to Winona, and last week the first group came for two weeks. There were few in the crowd who greeted them at the station who could keep back the tears. There were twenty tired mothers, some with babies, one with twins. Most of these people had never been in the country before; they were soon seated in the wagons provided. Then came forty girls, and last seventy-five boys. Headed by the Winsom band, the procession marched to Chicago Hill where a bountiful supper was waiting. The camp is very complete having even a regular physician with his medicines—which have not been needed yet. A number of trained attendants are present, the mothers are relieved of all responsibilities. The ladies have time to visit, the rich are spending their spare time in making new clothes for the children. What glorious times they are having—swimming lessons every morning, beat races, baseball games and all kinds of sports.

There have never been so many visitors at Winona Lake as this year, about 3,000 are living at the hotels and cottages and about 300 come out from Warsaw daily and almost every day has its excursion. One day about ten thousand were on the grounds; yet with all this there is perfect order. I have not heard an oath since my arrival, and there seems to be no need of a police force.

Approval of a Soldier's Death Sentence By President McKinley.

For the first time since the outbreak of the Spanish war, President McKinley has approved the death sentence in the case of an enlisted man. The case is that of Private Phineas Fountz, Company K, Ninth Infantry. This soldier was convicted by General court martial at Cebu, P. I., for the murder of Genevieve Torris, a native Filipino girl, by stabbing her to death with a sword cane in her home at Maidana, Cebu, November 15, 1900. The court sentenced the accused to be hanged.

"Bush Money Used Freely."

Lexington's Chief of Police on Saturday raided the Florentine Hotel pool room and closed them. John McLaughlin, manager of the Phoenix Hotel pool room, whose place has been singled out for police visitation when other similar enterprises were not molested, has issued a sensational statement in the form of an interview, admitting that he paid $500 a month for police protection and charging that when the payment of this monthly sum ceased the officers of the law renewed their attentions to him.

Renewed their attentions to him.

Attachment Reinstanted.

Appellate Judge Burnam Thursday reinstated an attachment sued out in the Montgomery Circuit Court by Marks & Stix, merchants of Cincinnati, against A. J. Gause, a merchant in Rowan county, on account of an unpaid note for several hundred dollars.

Judge Cooper had dismissed the attachment.

THE POET IBSEN.

His Brain Never at Rest During His Walking Hours.

The trouble is brain trouble, and when one considers Ibsen's manner of living, one is surprised that it did not manifest itself before. I should say that his brain was never resting in his walking hours. When not reading or writing, he was cogitating; one had but to watch him, as I have done for hours together, at the Grand Hotel in Christiania, to be convinced of that. He likes to be in the midst of crowds, and yet apart from them. He spent most of his day in the reading-room of the hotel, yet rarely, if ever, was seen to exchange a word with anybody. There he used to sit, heedless of the stares of the curious, with his bottle of beer and his measure of aquavitæ—a kind of Norwegian brandy flavored with aniseed—before him, taking alternate sips, his brows wrinkled and his eye lost to all around him. So, also, in his hygienic permutations of the Karl Johnson's Gade, the principal street, his brain was constantly at work that he did not observe one out of every ten of the ceremonious bows with which the passers-by greeted him. This gave offense to none, and if strangers thought him a "bit of a bear," those who knew his character rejoiced, rather, to think that a new masterpiece was under way.

The unfortunate news, however, which has reached us shows that this Buddha-like, self-concentration, this cerebral egotism, are against the laws of nature, and lead, also, to disaster. A little society, some domestic joys and cares, would have made Ibsen's life a happier one, and have spared it to the world for a longer time. No one will be more distressed at Ibsen's illness than King Oscar of Sweden. Much as he dislikes Christianity and contact with the Norwegians, who have so little loyalty or sympathy with him, he always looked forward to the periodical visits to the capital of Norway, imposed on him by the constitution, for the pleasure of receiving Ibsen to dinner. In the king's presence alone, did Ibsen cast off his glacial reserve and show himself one of the most fascinating talkers in the world. Such is the description of him which was given to me by a lady—a musician of great talent, who lives in Christiania, and who is a friend of the king—who has frequently been a guest at the palace dinners when Ibsen has been present. I can quite believe it, for I have heard Ibsen's daughter, young Mine Bjornson, converse, and can fancy her father's manner when charmed into expansiveness by that most delightful of hosts, King Oscar of Sweden. — Boston Transcript.

"Common Sense"

is the motto of the modern woman.

The thick soled shoe and the long day skirt are witnesses to the wise application of the motto in matters of dress.

But there is a common error in neglecting womanly diseases or in experimenting with them.

It is a matter of common knowledge that Dr. Merritt Fawcett's Prescription makes weak women strong and sick women well. It stabilizes regularity, dries perspiration, reduces inflammation and ulceration and cures female weakness.

It is not common sense to seek medical advice from persons who are not physicians when Dr. Fawcett not only a doctor but a specialist in the treatment and cure of diseases of women, offers a complete letter of free.

Write to Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y. "I had failing of internal organs and had to go to bed every morning; had irregular monthly periods, which would last for twelve days," writes Mrs. L. Holmes, of Coalton, West Virginia. "I was advised to undergo an operation so that I could not eat anything. Dr. Fawcett cured me. I took nothing but 'Golden Medical Discovery' and I took nothing but 'Golden Medical Discovery.'

R. I. S. of Prisoners Threatened in Hawaii—Honolulu Much Disturbed.

The Constitution of the United States preceded the flag in Hawaii, according to a decision just rendered by Circuit Judge George D. Gear, of the First Circuit. He has already released on habeas corpus petitions three prisoners sentenced for infamous crimes after the resolution of annexation passed Congress and was signed by President McKinley, on the ground that they were not convicted by a unanimous verdict of twelve jurors.

A wholesale jail delivery of murderers, burglars, thieves and other criminals is threatened under the decision, and Honolulu is greatly disturbed over the prospects.

BASED ON INSULAR DECISIONS.

The decision was given under the recent insular decisions of the United States Supreme Court and upon the clause in the Newlands resolution, which stated that all municipal legislation of the Hawaii Islands not inconsistent with the Constitution should "remain in force." Judge Gear held that this meant that laws that were inconsistent with the Constitution should not remain in force and that therefore the Constitution extended to Hawaii immediately on the signing of the Newlands resolution by the President.

Lynched.

Three negroes, mother, daughter and son, were lynched at Carrollton. Miss. Thursday. They were suspected of being implicated in the murder of Mr. and Mrs. Tidlaferne. Thirteen other negroes are under arrest. Gov. Longino arrived on a special train just after the lynching.

The Governor says the State has again been disgraced by this affair, which is all the more horrible because the lynched negroes were accused not of the assassination of Mr. Tidlaferne and his wife, but simply of robbery and the crime of killing knowledge of the fact. An alibi was clearly established for one man and one woman.

Elder Wm. Rhenard, of Clark county, an Old Baptist preacher, has been pastor of Goshen Church in Clark County, Lubegrad in Montgomery county, and Cane Ridge in Madison county, for fifty-five years.

Pat Dolan, of Woodford county, has in his fifty-five consecutive hemp crop. He says he has averaged during this time near $6.00 per hand. The late John H. Gold had planted this year his sixty-first crop of corn of the same variety of seed corn, his last crop being as good as any. He secured the seed in 1819. New corn is being sought for to the extent that offers of $2.75 per barrel are being made. Heretofore the markets generally, in good crop years, opened at $1.50 per barrel. The high price is caused by the failure of the crop. The early crop is nearly a complete failure. The prospects are that the stock market will be flooded, because farmers do not feel like carrying cattle, hogs, etc., through the winter by paying high prices for forage. All forage and cereal crops are advancing daily in the local markets. An idea of the extent of the recent drought can be gleaned from the fact that wild hay in Texas is selling at $18 per ton, Hay at Kansas City is selling for about $22—Lexington Herald.

Spy on Marriage Fee, and Borrrows From Constable.

William B. Harris and Louise Serroggins hall from Paris, Ky. Each is 21 years of age. They wanted to wed.

Harris and his bride-to-be reached this city, and the former started out to get a marriage license and visited the City Hall in the belief that it was the courthouse. The document was finally secured and with clasped hands they walked to Squire Templeton's Court.

Harris is tall, while the girl is scarcely 5 feet in height. When she sat on a chair her feet did not touch the floor. The couple were united, and Harris gave his bride a resounding smack.

When informed that the cost of the transaction was $2, Harris expressed painful surprise, as he had but $1.72, but finally Constable Lacey helped him out of the dilemma by lending him a quarter.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Robbed the Merchant Instead of Buying Goods From Him.

S. J. Boyd, a merchant of Bald Eagle, Bath county, was assaulted and robbed last Tuesday night. He was called to his store, went to wait on his supposed customers and when just inside the door he started to strike a match the robbers struck him on the head with a pistol knocking him down and jumping on the prostrate man, almost beating him to death. The robbers then took Mr. Boyd's pocketbook containing $107 and escaped.

Joe M. Smith, Formally of this County, Arrested.

On Thursday night at 9:40 in the Phoenix Hotel restaurant Andrew Arvidsson shot and seriously wounded Paul Goetz, chief at the Phoenix. The shooting resulted from a family quarrel, because of reported undue attention on the part of Goetz with a member of the family. They met in the restaurant, Arvidsson fired and Goetz staggered and fell shot in the breast near the heart. Arvidsson was arrested and jailed. Mr. Joe M. Smith, of Payne's Depot, formerly of this county, is a brother-in-law of Arvidsson, they having married Misses Fannie and Julia Powell, of this county, and was present when the shooting occurred. He also was arrested as necessary to the fact. Smith says he received telephone message on Thursday from Goetz. He came and saw Goetz in the kitchen at 9 o'clock and came out meeting Arvidsson at the door next to deposit, saw him enter the room and shoot Goetz. Smith and Arvidsson were in jail together. Arvidsson's bail was placed at $5,000. Goetz died on Friday morning.

DEATHS.

MURPHY.—Mrs. Lucy Murphy, of Ezel, died August 5.

PERKINS.—Wiley Perkins, an honored citizen of Wolfe county, died near Hazel Green August 5.

HAMBY.—On Monday morning the youngest child of Ezekiel Hamby died at their home on the Ed. McClure farm on Spencer.

MARK.—H. R. Mark died at the home of his sister, Mrs. Josie Boardman, near Sideview on Friday morning, August 9, 1901. Since January he had been in frail health, but was confined to his bed only six days. He was in his 43rd year. He was a son of Wm. Mark, deceased. He leaves a brother, J. Lark, and two sisters, Madames Josie Boardman and George Roberts. Many friends assembled at the home on Saturday at 3 o'clock and accompanied the remains to the Mark burying ground on the John Gaitskill farm, where the burial service was conducted by Bruce W. Trimble. He was kind and generous, thinking more of others than of himself. To those who mourn his loss we express our sympathy.

ROGERS.—Mrs. Mattie Anderson, wife of Clarence Rogers, of Leitchfield, had been visiting her mother, Mrs. Sarah Walker Anderson, at Gilead, for four weeks past. About one week ago she was taken with health and became very low state of health, she gradually sank until it until 7 o'clock Monday morning when heart action ceased. Had she lived until August 16 she would have been twenty-six years old. Her husband arrived here on Saturday and was constantly with her. She leaves four children from six years to two months old. At the age of twelve years she became a member of the Cumberland Presbyterian church and has always been a faithful member. A bright girl, she studied at the school of Mrs. A. M. Collier, Lexington, and seven years ago was married to Mr. Clarence Rogers, of Leitchfield. As she was a lovely spirited girl so she has been as wife and mother. Funeral services will be held at her mother's residence this afternoon at 3 o'clock, conducted by Revs. T. N. Williams, of Louisville, and A. E. Carnahan. Burial in Machpelah cemetery.

That a young mother, with so many young children, should have taken seems strange, and we say it is sad. We hope that she will be remembered for the good relatives and kind Christian friends to care for the little ones. We know the good mother would have been glad to have been spared to bring up the little ones, but God has used for her and called her to himself where a little while she will wait and then be joined by those she has left. In the presence of death the Christian can comfort, knowing the departed can not return to the flesh and the living may go on.

We would like to advise friends to be faithful, to prepare for the future, and may the little ones be brought up in the fear and admonition of the Lord.

UNION MEETING.

Rev. H. D. Clark occupied the pulpit at the Baptist church Sunday evening. The effort of the preacher in the defense of the Bible was plain, down on a level with the common people, beautiful in word, sublime in thought and unanswerable as yet by any of the world's in.

The thoughtful audience was well pleased. The meeting will be held at the Southern Presbyterian church and the sermon will be preached by Rev. D. W. Robertson of the Methodist church.
